VOL. XIX.—NO. 5870. PORTLAND, OREGON, FRIDAY, JANUARY 16, 1880. PRICE—TEN CENTS

GENERAL NEWS.

BY TELEGRAPH TO THE OREGONIAN

Railroad Completed

St Louis Jan 1 —The Kansas [illegible] of the St Louis & San Francisco railroad made connection with the Atchison [illegible] & Santa Fe railroad at [illegible]. A permanent connection with the latter road will be made at [illegible] Kansas, in a short time, when [illegible] through [illegible] and New Mexico.

Suicide of a Prisoner Charged with Murder

Doylestown Ia Jan 1 —Joseph Hoff [illegible] of Andalusia was committed to jail Saturday evening on a charge of murdering Jacob G[illegible]. His wife and children called to see him this morning but when the cell door opened he was found dead having cut his throat from ear to ear.

Schurz' Plans.

New York, Jan 11 —Schurz has arranged to have a guard of police in constant attendance upon the Ute chiefs so as to keep newspaper men away from them during negotiations in Washington. The examination of the Indians will be behind closed doors.

Matters in Mexico.

Galveston, Jan 11 —A special from Brownsville reports the defeat by revolution of Gen Trevino who has been in uninterrupted communication with Saltillo. There is some slight disturbance connected with the governorship of Gen Treas who is unpopular with a large class of people in the states of the Rio Grande who favor Gen Gonzales for president. He will establish his head quarters at San Luis Potosi about the 15th inst.

The Shoemaker's of St Louis Want More Pay.

St. Louis, Jan 11 —Representatives from boot and shoe factories held a meeting this afternoon and adopted a resolution demanding an advance of 10 per cent in wages to go into effect Jan. 15th. It was announced that the new schedule had been agreed to in three of the factories, and that others were considering the proposition favorably. It is believed the advance will be obtained without a strike.

The Choice of the Republicans for the Presidency.

[illegible] Jan 12 —Returns received from interviews in Indiana with republicans of all shades of opinions give the Indianapolis Journal the following result: For choice of presidential candidates—Blaine 1882, Grant 1609, Sherman 1352, Hayes 874, Washburne 71, Garfield 87, Thompson [illegible], Colfax 13, Harrison 16, Bristow 11, Conkling 17, Edmunds 10, Fremont 6, and the rest scattering. The Journal says that the strength of Sherman among the republicans of Indiana is a great surprise to many, and especially following, as the interview do, so soon after a report recommending the abolition of the legal tender quality of greenbacks as to all contracts made subsequent to the passage of the act. It is also a noteworthy fact that a large number of those who are opposed to Sherman's nomination base their opposition mainly on his want of availability, and the class that prefer him as a nominee are largely business men and not more active in politics. It is a matter of still greater surprise to advocates of Grant's nomination that opposition to him is so great and mainly based on a conscientious opposition to a third term.

Charles O'Conor Hits a Lick all Round.

New York, Jan 13 —The World prints a two column letter from Charles O'Conor to the democratic club of Essex county, N J, in which he speaks disparagingly of the republicans and contains both factions of the New York democracy, styling Kelly a local factionist, and dismissing Tilden for his former servility to southern domination. He says that he suddenly wheeled around in 1877–8 because of a merely personal disappointment.

Justifiable Homicide.

Franklin, La., Jan. 14 —To day, Sidney Cole, aged about 18, owner of three fourths of the Chatsworth plantation, rode up to the gate of C. B. Wafford, manager of the plantation, and informed Wafford that he had come to kill him. Wafford expostulated in vain. Cole dismounted and advanced, pistol in hand, toward the house. Mrs Wafford realizing the danger of her husband, called out to him to arm himself which he did by seizing a shotgun, and stepping out confronted Cole, who continued advancing and said, "I have come to kill you d—n you, I mean business," whereupon Wafford remarked to him, "If you mean business here it is," at the same time discharging his weapon, the shot taking effect in the breast of Cole killing him instantly. Wafford immediately went to town and surrendered himself to the sheriff, but was afterwards discharged from custody, the coroner's jury having returned a verdict of excusable homicide.

Barksdale Ahead.

Jackson, Miss., Jan 14 —The democratic caucus was resultless. Barksdale is ahead.

Outrages by Strikers in Chicago.

Chicago, Jan. 13 —There was considerable excitement at the stock yards this morning, owing to assaults made by union men, who, unable to secure their old places in packing houses, busied themselves in going about the yards abusing non-union men, stoning them and striking them with sticks as they passed in and out of the gates. About 400 in all were engaged in these outrages, and several of the men were arrested and marched to the police station at the point of the revolver followed by a hooting crowd of their friends. The most of the strikers and all the more reasonable ones are at their halls, but should the arrests continue, it is feared that there will be trouble and bloodshed. The police authorities regard the situation as critical and have transferred a large force to the stock yards.

A Striker Stricken.

Chicago Jan 13 —While a mob of union men were attacking a workman named An[illegible] Deichman, in Halsted street, this afternoon, he drew a butcher knife and stabbed Frank Gough, leader of the malcontents in[illegible] serious injuries. Deichman was arrested and taken by the police into a street car, whereupon the mob nearly demolished the car with stones. The superintendent of police has ordered saloons in the vicinity of the stock yards closed for the present.

The Utes Must Go—Chief Ouray Complains of his Treatment.

New York, Jan 15 —It is understood that in a conference with Chief Ouray yesterday Schurz insisted that all the Utes must remove from Colorado. This statement is made on good authority, and if true indicates that the southern band which has remained peaceable and has co-operated with the government authorities is to be treated the same as the hostile Utes so far as banishment from the state is concerned. It appears that Ouray and his companions are becoming considerably discontented already with the state of seclusion to which they are subjected by the orders of the secretary. Ouray in particular is said to complain that while he has proved himself true in every sense he is treated more as a hostile than others are, and for he that he has never been allowed to present his side of the case to the American people save as it has been filtered through officials of the interior department.

Outrage by Oystermen in Virginia.

Richmond, Jan 13 —Marauding oystermen invaded the Rappahannock river in armed vessels driving citizens from the oyster beds. Two of the citizens were killed. The governor has petitioned the general assembly to send the state militia.

Attempts to Steal the Body of the Late Count Joannes

New York Jan 11 —The Herald says the Superintendent Palmer of the Maple Grove cemetery where the body of Count Joannes was buried received information on Wednesday that $500 had been offered for the head and brain of the count and that an attempt was to be made to steal the body some night during the week. On that night Palmer and one of his laborers kept watch and three men were detected in the cemetery in a secluded part, evidently waiting for a favorable opportunity to begin the work of exhumation which would not have required more than an hour's [illegible] The men went out of the cemetery [illegible] road track. WASHINGTON CITY

The Savage Villains in Washington

Washington Jan 12 —The Ute delegation arrived this morning. They were met at the depot by two employes of the Indian bureau who escorted them to their quarters at the Tremont house and have kept strict watch upon them during the day. The hotel has been besieged all day by crowds of curious people anxious to see the Indians but all were disappointed as the officials of the interior department had given strict orders that they should not be allowed to talk to any one previous to a council at the department. They remained in their rooms all day. Secretary Schurz stated this evening that he had not yet decided upon the programme to be followed in their examination as he is awaiting the arrival of General Adams who is expected to-morrow.

A Talk with the Utes.

Washington, Jan 15 —The house committee on Indian affairs to day began an investigation into the causes of the recent Ute outbreak. General Adams was before the committee and gave a long statement of grievances of the Indians. Miss Meeker was present but did not testify. Reporters were excluded.

A Magnificent Gift from Flood to his Daughter.

Washington, Jan 14 —Two and a half millions of United States four per cent. bonds were registered at the treasury department last Saturday in the name of Miss Jennie Flood, daughter of the bonanza capitalist. Her income from this present of her father will be exactly $100,000 per year.

A Bill to Regulate the U S Courts of Colorado.

Washington Jan 14 —A bill introduced by Senator Teller to-day relative to courts in Colorado provides that the terms of the United States circuit and district courts shall be held at Denver semi-annually and once a year at Pueblo and Del Norte and that special terms may be held at these places and elsewhere in Colorado upon the order of the respective circuit or district judge. The bill requires the clerk's office to be maintained at each place named. It provides that any proceeding brought in either court may be transferred to another.

Secretary Evarts and the Inter-Oceanic Canal Schemes.

Washington Jan 11 —A special to the Post says that Secretary Evarts says the dispatches asserting that he, as attorney of the Panama Railroad Co., had advised Grant not to accept the presidency of the Darien Canal Company are false. The Panama Railroad Company has never, he says, been a client of his. Personally, he favors the Nicaragua cut as the most feasible, although the geographical superiority of the Tehuantepec route for an American canal is obvious. The high levels and limited supply of water however seem to make that route impracticable. He has little faith that De Lesseps will put through his Panama scheme.

Evarts' Action with Reference to the Canal Censured

New York, Jan 12 —The World thinks that the American people will hold this administration, and Secretary Evarts particularly to a sharp account for the inaction pending the negotiations between DeLesseps and the government of Colombia for the canal and hints that Evarts let the inter oceanic question drift out of his control from his devotion to the interests of the Panama Railway company. It is understood that DeLesseps and his friends are negotiating for the purchase of so much of the stock of the Panama Railway company as is not now controlled by British holders and no matter how unjust to Mr Evarts the imputation put upon him by a correspondent of the Philadelphia Press may be, any secretary of state who allows a powerful foreign influence to establish itself without hindrance of any effectual sort from him upon an American isthmus through which it is possible to open a seaway between the Atlantic and Pacific oceans, must expect to be sternly handled, not only by intelligent public opinion but by the irritated national instincts of his countrymen.

Bayard's Bill to Repeal Legal Tender Power of Greenbacks

Washington, Jan 14 —Senator Bayard's joint resolution to repeal the legal tender power of greenbacks will be reported back to the senate adversely to morrow instead of remaining locked up in committee by a tie vote, because he personally requested the committee not to wait for the return of Senator Jones but to report it at once although adversely in order that he and those who sympathize with his views, may test the views of the senate on the important question as soon as possible. This urgency as will be readily inferred is based upon the belief that a majority of the senate will sustain his position on the subject but very few of his friends seem to be equally sanguine. The best judgment at present is that the proposition as it stands cannot obtain anything like a majority vote.

The Finance Committee to Report Adversely on Bayard's Resolution

The senate finance committee this afternoon after discussion of Bayard's resolution to repeal the legal tender power of greenbacks took a vote upon it, which resulted in a decision to report it adversely. Votes in favor of passage were cast by Bayard, Kernan, Wallace and Morrill. Those against it were Beck, Voorhees, Ferry and Allison. Jones of Nevada was absent but he is known to be opposed. There is a rush for afternoon papers.

Army Promotions—Fitz John Porter's Case.

Washington, Jan 10 —The senate committee on military affairs this afternoon decided to report favorably all pending army nominations (about 161) except two lieutenants whose promotions are laid aside for further information.

The Fitz John Porter case will be taken up for consideration and possible action on Tuesday next.

Indian Commissioner Hayt's Case

At a meeting of the board of Indian commissioners to day a committee was appointed to investigate accusations against Commissioner Hayt, on account of his alleged mining speculations in Arizona. This commission consists of Chairman Barstow and Smiley and Stickney. Any one who attended the open session of the board could not fail to observe that Hayt has two staunch friends and defenders in that body. One of these is the chairman and the other Kingsley of New York. Hayt was appointed at the urgent solicitation of the latter.

Ammen's Nicaraguan Route

Washington Jan 12 —Articles of incorporation have been prepared by Ammen with the assistance of Capt. Phelps and other gentlemen interested in the proposed Nicaraguan inter oceanic canal. They will be submitted to a special house committee in a few days. The name of Gen Grant heads the list of incorporators.

Official Nominations

Washington Jan 1 —The senate has confirmed G. B. Corkhill United States attorney for the district of Columbia and Chas. S. Varian United States attorney for the district of Nevada.

THE DARIEN CANAL SCHEME.

U. S. MINISTER DICHMAN WRITES UPON IT

From his Station in the U. S. of Colombia he sees Important Objections to the Present Plans—His Points Detailed.

SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN

Washington Jan 14 —Such portions of the diplomatic correspondence of the past year as are considered proper to be made public are in course of publication under orders of the state department. Among them were several dispatches from Ernest Dichman our minister to the United States of Colombia in which he quotes and severely criticises the provisions of the Wyse contract with the Colombian government in the behalf of De Lesseps's project for the construction of an interoceanic canal across the Isthmus of Darien. Dichman sets forth in detail what he characterizes as the unsatisfactory character of the conditions contained in that instrument for attaining objects for which it was executed and its speculative features and adds: "Nor would the instrument be made acceptable by any amendments or modification, which could be introduced. The insuperable objection thereto was the mere contract of a private company would always remain." Dichman, in the course of this same dispatch which is in response to a request from the department for his views on the subject says: "As I have already explained the political condition of this republic is not of such a nature as to attract the investment of many millions of dollars in such enterprises. Even the existence of the government and union of these states is anything but assured, and the ever present danger of the secession of the state of Panama makes it exceedingly improbable that anybody can be found to invest his money in an undertaking which without the support and guarantee of the United States might probably be made the bone of contention between different political factions of his country. Nor is it to be supposed any European government would give its moral or material support to an enterprise of such magnitude on this continent, without first coming to an understanding with the government of the United States. Precedents for international understandings concerning improvements of channels of commerce and of communication in which more than one nation is interested are not wanting. I beg to mention only the abolition of sound and the Scheldt dues, the Mont Cenis and St Gotthard tunnels, the improvement of the navigation of the Lower Danube and the occupation and management of the lighthouse at Cape Spartel. It is more than probable that, after the construction of the inter oceanic canal, commerce from which tolls will be collected will belong principally to us and Great Britain, therefore questions as to the cost and management of this enterprise are of great importance to us. Guarantees for its security against domestic and foreign dangers will ultimately have to be assumed as a heavy responsibility by the United States government and it is only right that in determining the conditions under which this work is to be undertaken the government of the United States should be consulted and should have the control over its management and use which is demanded by the commercial and political interests of our country, the proximity of the canal to our ports and its position on the American continent."

In a subsequent dispatch dated Oct. 17, 1879 Minister Dichman writes to Secretary Evarts as follows:

"I have taken occasion in my previous dispatches on the subject to bring to your notice the reasons why in my opinion construction of the canal under the contract now held by DeLesseps should be discouraged by the United States. In addition to those reasons permit me to state that the organization of a company to be formed by DeLesseps although advertised as international will be French in everything that affects any question except the contribution of money for the company must have a domicile somewhere and must be subject to the jurisdiction of some government. The canal constructed by such a company will be nothing less than the planting of a French colony on the isthmus."

He calls attention to the fact that as yet but one nation the United States has guaranteed to Colombia sovereignty and neutrality as well as the right of property on the isthmus, and proceeds to argue that in the event of serious differences arising between the canal company and the Colombian government, the intervention of the government of the company would doubtless be invoked in which case it is more than probable the good offices of the government of the U S would have to be invited by the government of Colombia, and we should thus be in a fair way of having an Egyptian question on this continent, which every consideration of reason and policy would dictate that it should be avoided by making the construction of the canal under the present contract, impossible. Minister Dichman also takes the ground that, irrespective of the political questions involved, the commerce of the United States would be at a disadvantage if the management of the interoceanic canal should be in the hands of a European company. In the course of his remarks on this proposition he points out that all differences arising between such canal company and shipping using the canal would have to be adjudicated either by the courts of Bogota or by the courts in Europe, and that in either case difficulties arising from distance alone would work a practical denial of justice for American shipowners or masters. In conclusion he writes that the more the subject of the construction of the interoceanic canal is examined the more it becomes apparent that the government of the United States cannot view with indifference the construction and management of it by a European government or by companies subject to the jurisdiction of such government. The published correspondence does not include any letters from this state department on the subject of interoceanic canals.

McCarthy Resigns—Meat and Bread Shops at Cork Plundered.

New York Jan 10 —A cable dispatch says that McCarthy has resigned his representation from Mallow because he is resolved to have no connection with Parnell's policy and also because he is disgusted with the bickerings and jealousy of the home rulers in parliament.

Five hundred inhabitants of the Kale bog district county Limerick are on the brink of starvation. They proceeded to lay in a body to Croom and obtained four cartloads of bread by urgent representation of their extremity. The streets of Cork are patrolled by mounted police and the magistrates of the city have passed resolutions urging greater activity in the suppression of demonstrations partaking of the nature of bread riots and asking for the appointment of additional police. The Republicans get a Quorum for each House and Organize them—Governor Chamberlain refuses to Recognize either of the Legislatures—More Republicans Unseated by the Fusionists

Charges of Treason against Chamberlain—Stirring speech by Eugene Hale—The Cts Submitted to the Courts—Confusion Worse Confounded

SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN

Meeting of the Republican House

Augusta Jan 12 —The members of the house were called to order by Hale and Wentworth of Kittery made temporary chairman. The clerk called the roll of members elect. All the republicans responded. The fusionists did not respond. Fifty five members of the house answered the call and were qualified by Wm Stratton clerk of Kennebec county. Subsequently six members who were not by the face of returns elected on account of facts which were unseated under the law of 1878 were admitted by a resolution submitted by Sp out. Geo Weeks of Augusta was elected speaker. After organization Hale offered a similar resolution as that in the senate calling for the appointing of a committee to request the opinion of the supreme court as to the legality of the organization of the house and in making the resolution Hale spoke of the extraordinary circumstances under which they met and the organization was to settle vital questions affecting the organizations of legislature and state government. The house will obey the decision of the court.

Organization of the Republican Senate

At 20 minutes to 6 this evening republican members of the senate and house of representatives proceeded to the state house for the purpose of organizing the legislature. The movement was entirely unknown to the fusionists and but few republicans outside of the immediate members were aware of the position of affairs. The news that the republicans had taken possession of the state house spread rapidly and caused great rejoicing among republicans who have been impatient to have this result brought about. Mr Lawson president of the senate when he saw the people assembling proceeded to Gen Chamberlain's headquarters and excitedly said: "I protest against these men coming in." The general informed Lawson that he should permit the men to stay as long as they pleased. There was no forcible resistance whatever. The halls were lighted, minor officers of previous legislatures familiar with the premises taking hold and lending their assistance.

In the senate Hon Jere Dingley, Jr called the meeting to order and Austin Harris was called to the chair.

Prayer was offered by Rev Dr Butler member of the house.

Chas W Turner assistant secretary of the late senate called the roll and 18 senators responded to the call.

A quorum was announced as present all being republicans, who proceeded to qualify the oath being administered by Wm M Stratton.

Andrew S Smith was declared senator from Lincoln county on the face of the returns.

Joseph A. Locke was chosen president, receiving all the votes thrown—19. Chas W Tilden was chosen secretary. Geo. B. Beckett of Belfast, as sistant secretary.

The following order was passed:

Ordered That a committee consisting of three members of the senate be appointed by the president to report to the senate for its action whether the senate shall call upon the justices of the supreme court for their opinion touching the legal organization of the senate for the 59th legislature and to report for the action of the senate such questions of law and facts as are required in the premises.

One of the New Governors

Augusta Jan 12 —On the assembling of the senate this A. M. President Lamson sent a letter announcing that he assumed the duties of governor.

The Official Count.

Senator Ellis of Waldo was chosen president pro tem of the committee on gubernatorial votes, reported the whole number of votes 138,807, necessary for a choice 69,4[illegible]. Daniel F Davis had 68,770, Joseph L Smith 47,610, Alonzo Garcelon, 21,8[illegible], Bion Bradbury 28, Daniel F. Lavid [illegible], remainder scattering. The constitutional candidates are Daniel F Davis, Joseph L Smith, Alonzo Garcelon and Bion Bradbury.

The Bribery Hunters.

The house committee to investigate charges of attempted bribery met in Representatives hall. White was summoned to appear but did not respond. He declined to recognize the authority of the committee. Swan and Harriman reiterated in substance their affidavits and statements in the house with some additional particulars. Solon Chase testified that he advised Swan to go ahead and get White to commit himself and party and other testimony was given but no new facts came out.

The bribery committee of the house held a session this afternoon. J C White of Wilton made a statement of the offers made him in the nature of a bribe by W. E. White, his cousin. Wentworth of South Berwick testified that one Ricker tried to induce him to remain at home from the legislature, offering $200 if he would remain at home the 1st and 2d days of the session and after wards offered $500 down and $10 a day for 40 days. Decker (Dem) said that Cushman his son who thought it was a disgrace for him to take his seat tried to induce him to remain at home.

Time for Trouble to Begin.

Boston, Jan 11 —Regarding the rumored intention of the fusionists in the house to arrest either Hale or Young the Advertiser's correspondent at Augusta telegraphs to night: "Should there be an attempt to arrest Hale or Young and bring them in trouble will begin. The hundreds of armed men who have been in the city for a week could no longer be held back by the leaders whose voices have continually been for peace."

Bell-ringers and Barrel-burners.

Augusta Me Jan 11 —On the assembling of the house the first business was the appointment of the following committee on elections: Dickey of Fort Kent, Robinson of Thomaston, Young of Brunswick, Hard of Biddeford, Hill of Exeter, Swan of Minot and Beaner of Waldoboro. The committee immediately retired to perform their duties. It is reported that Hale of Ellsworth, and Butler of Vassalboro are to be unseated and fusion members take their places. It also thatthe fusion members from Lewiston will be admitted. Fusionists say that if Smith is chosen governor to day they will have a meeting of [illegible] to night, ring the bells and burn tar barrels.

It is announced that the fusionists will proceed at once to the election of governor and all state officers. This is the general feeling.

It is still claimed that Lamson will not be recognized as governor by Chamberlain.

Lamson against Chamberlain

Augusta Jan 14 —The following orders have been issued:

State of Maine Executive Dep't }
Augusta Jan 13 1880 }

To J. L. Chamberlain, Major General Commanding:

Dear Sir—Having entered upon the duties of governor of Maine under critical circumstances it is important for me to find that you are prepared to recognize my authority as such. Respectfully, Jas D. Lamson, Governor.

State of Maine, Jan 13 1880

To Hon Jas D Lamson: Sir—I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your communication informing me that you have entered upon the duties of governor and desiring to know if I am prepared to recognize your authority as such. The gravity of these times and the importance of my answer to your question is demanding that I give it the most earnest attention. I am acting under authority devolved upon me by virtue of the following order (Here he quoted Garcelon's order of appointment.) In the attitude which things have now taken the responsibility resting upon me under this order involves the liberties of the people, their most sacred property and the stability of constitutional government, the highest [illegible] [illegible] I am thankful that you [illegible] and understand this and realize equally with myself the importance of our proceeding with caution. Military Orders

At Augusta Jan [illegible] —Gen Chamberlain has issued the following order:

Headquarters First Division, Augusta Jan 13

General order No 3—First—The militia organizations of the state now in the service of the state and all men liable to military duty in this state is directed to the following orders:

State of Maine Adjutant General's Office }
Augusta Jan 5 1880 }

Second—Major General Joshua L Chamberlain is assigned to the command of the first division.

Third—Commanding officers of all military organizations accepted into the services of the state are required to report to him. He will be obeyed accordingly. By order of the governor and commander in chief. S. D. LEAVITT, Adjutant General.

State of Maine Adjutant General's Office }
Augusta Jan 5 1880 }

Special Order No 15—Major General Joshua L Chamberlain is hereby authorized and directed to protect the property and institutions of the state until my successor is duly qualified.

ALONZO GARCELON, Governor.

Second—I am now discharging the duties thus devolved upon me in protecting public property and institutions of the state until a governor is legally elected and duly qualified.

Third—Particular attention is called to the law rendering it unlawful for any body of men other than regularly organized corps of militia without authority specially given to associate themselves together as military organizations or to parade in public with arms.

Fourth—All persons and organizations will take notice accordingly, and all authorized military organizations will understand that they are to report to me for orders until they are otherwise ordered by or through me.

(Signed) JOSHUA L. CHAMBERLAIN, Major General.

Hale's Health.

A report that Hale is ill is untrue. He was never in better health. Seven fusionists refused to attend the caucus to night. Fifty men headed by Col Heath came from Waterville to night and proceeded to the state house where they are quartered.

Democrats Discouraged and Republicans Jubilant.

The fusionists do not attempt to conceal the fact that to-day their cause suffered a serious blow. The party shows signs of disintegrating, and although some sanguine spirits think a new start can be made to-morrow the prospect is anything but cheerful for them, and the weaker minds are disposed to admit that the fight is lost. Correspondingly exultant are the republicans. They declare that this is the beginning of the end and feel surer than ever of victory.

Questions Settled on—Recess.

At a quarter to 2 the committee of the house to report questions to submit to the supreme court submitted a series which it was voted to submit to the court. The questions arising. Both branches adjourned at 2 until Saturday, Jan. 17th at 2 P. M.

Chamberlain's Course.

Chicago Jan 3 —Following is an interview between the Times Augusta correspondent and Gen Chamberlain:

"Do you propose to recognize the body of men now in session at the state house as the legislature?"

"No. I do not recognize this one no more than I do the other. I don't consider either of them more than members-elect unorganized. I have not yet recognized either branch and shall not until I know their authority. Of course whatever the court decrees will be satisfactory to me. I do not presume to decide in these matters, but the burden is on them to show that they are legally organized."

Court Assembling.

Bangor Jan 14 —The associate justices will arrive to night, and court will convene to morrow.

Hale to be Unseated.

Augusta Jan 14 —The executive committee voted three to two to unseat Hale.

Case Submitted.

Bangor Me Jan 14 —A statement of the facts and questions were submitted to day to the supreme court of Maine by the republican legislature for decisions. The following are the questions proposed to the supreme court:

Have the governor and council the right under the constitution to summon a person to attend and take a seat in the senate or house of representatives who by official returns under a decision of the court does not appear to be elected but defeated or not voted for, or would such summons be merely void as exceeding the powers of the governor and council under the constitution?

Second—Has the holder of any such summons the right to take part in the organization or subsequent proceedings of either house to the exclusion of members rightfully elected as shown by said returns under the decision of the court or does such right rest in said last named members to the exclusion of the members summoned from the same district?

Third—If summons were issued under the facts recited under the statement herewith submitted to L. was Voter of Farmington district Daniel Snow of Skowhegan [illegible] Cushman of Ashland, James O White of Jay, Leonard H Beale of Lisbon, Osgood N. Bradbury of Stoneham, Geo W Johnson of New Sharon, Lincoln S. Leighton of Cherryfield, Aaron H Woodcock of Vanceboro, R. Albert of Fairfield, Joshua L Jordan of Searsport would such summons give either of the above named persons the right to take part in the organization or subsequent proceedings of the house, or would such right rest in Cyrus H. Thomas of Farmington district, Hiram S Stewart of Skowhegan district, Jno Burnham of Ashland district, Jno R. Eaton of Jay district, Wm H Thomas of Lisbon district, A. F. Andrews of Stoneham district, David N Norton of New Sharon district, Henry C Baker of Cherryfield district, Chas. A. Rolf of Vanceboro district and K. B. Cole, of Fairfield district to the exclusion of the persons summoned from these districts. If summonses were issued under the facts recited in the statement herewith submitted to there follow the names of the legislature] would such summonses give the right to the above named persons to take part in the organization or subsequent proceedings of the senate, or would such right rest in those follow the names] to the exclusion of persons summoned from the same districts?

Fifth—Does the same rule apply when the member summoned appears by the returns to be elected or because some error in the name or initials of candidates not summoned which error is correctable by law when the decision of the court and the official records state the name and initial correctly under the facts? Lincoln senatorial district and the representative districts of Exeter, Newcastle [illegible] Boro, Westm[illegible] and Robbins on as recited or which the member summoned appears by the returns to be elected only by rejecting the returns of one town because unsigned by the town clerk though a duly attested copy of the record of said town is reasonably offered as a substitute and rejected under the facts as recited?

Sixth—If the summons described in question one is void and persons holding such summons take part in the organization of either the senate or house of representatives and without the votes of such persons there are less than 16 members in the senate and less than 76 members in the house, [illegible] for and against officers of the so called senate house have such bodies any legal organization or officers?

Seventh—Without such legal organization in either house or senate or without 16 members in the senate and 76 members in the house present and voting for legal officers is any [illegible] [illegible] been elected any legal officer chosen or any business transacted?

Eighth—Will the legal organization formed legally been chosen by 76 members present and voting in the house of representatives and 16 members present and voting in the senate can either house compel the attendance of absent members?

White's Positive Denial

Winthrop Jan 8

The following card from Wallace E. White will be published to morrow:

Wednesday last just before the legislature was to be organized two affidavits, signed by Thos. B. Swan and Moses Harriman respectively appeared in the Maine Standard stating that some person or agent had given them $1000 cash to stay away from the legislature. Rumor connected my name therewith. I did not see fit to reply to the statement or affidavits which did not have semblance enough of truth to give the name of the person accused. This morning my name appeared for the first time in said paper. The statements contained in said paper so far as they concern me are absolutely unqualifiedly and maliciously false. I never offered paid or gave said Thomas B. Swan or Moses Harriman one dollar of money, directly or indirectly for the purpose of influencing their action or votes or for any other purpose whatever. I make this general and unqualified denial and shall demand the fullest investigation at the proper time. No fair investigation however can be had before an unlawfully organized house of representatives every one of whose members openly approve of the conduct of Harriman and Swan and glory in their shame. It is a sad spectacle in Maine to see 75 democrats and greenbackers rejoicing in a crime which if actually committed can be punished under the statutes of Maine with five years in the penitentiary and I object to being investigated by the conspirators of Swan and Harriman. We don't constitute juries in that way in Kennebec county. (Signed) WALLACE E. WHITE.

Mr White has been summoned to appear before the bribery committee of the house, but will refuse to appear on the grounds stated above.

Thieves Falling Out.

Augusta 14 —A rupture is reported between Solon Chase and Eben F. Pillsbury. Chase is against the use of any force and will abide the decision of the supreme court. He says unless the democrats come to this he will withdraw.

Resting on Their Arms.

The reported scheme of electing state officers and governor has apparently been abandoned, both parties seeming willing to await the decision of the supreme court before proceeding further. Lamson, who claims to be acting governor, has as yet performed no official act that at all interferes with the prerogative of General Chamberlain. The house took a recess until 2 o'clock P. M.

Stirring Scenes—About to Arrest Chamberlain.

Augusta Jan 14 —A large number of people in Bath, Portland and Bangor, alarmed at the reported condition of affairs here were ready to start for Augusta but before the train left they were informed by wire that there was no particular necessity for their presence. As it was many came, so as to be around town. As urances are given by those in command at the state house that no alarm need be felt in regard to any defense necessary for the protection of the records and the people. The fusionists are busy holding caucuses to-night, and it is hinted that a forward movement postponed to-day will be vigorously prosecuted to morrow that Attorney McLellan is preparing a warrant for the arrest of Gen Chamberlain. There is a police force of 150 men at the state house to-night and sentinels are placed outside the entrance.

All Quiet at Augusta—The "Standard" on the Situation.

Augusta Jan 15 —Some fifty men came from Bath last night under command of Capt White more, having heard a report that the safety of the capitol was endangered. Good order prevails this morning in every department. The Daily Standard (democratic) calls Gen Chamberlain a usurper. In reference to the expected opinion of the court it says: "We have no concern about questions or answers. The state authorities are quite indifferent to both. We are sure that they will have no influence upon the action of the properly constituted authorities of the state. Neither the governor nor the legislature will retreat or surrender the fort till it is bombarded by more effectual missiles than paper bullets. The republicans will find out what it is difficult for them to understand—that they have got to obey the laws and submit to the lawfully ordained authorities of this state as well as other persons, and the sooner some of them learn this fact the better it will be for them."

Chamberlain is Firm.

It is now stated that Gen Chamberlain refuses to comply with the request of Lamson to diminish the number of police at the state house. If any change is made it will be to strengthen the force.

NO JUSTIFICATION

Every shallow partisan democratic organ is full of glee over the iniquity in Maine. They say it is only a dose of the same medicine which the republicans forced the democrats to swallow when Hayes was declared president. Now these same partisan organs have never ceased to declare that Hayes was made president by the blackest fraud. Hence by their own argument they confess that their party is now in turn perpetrating a similar act. And they boldly justify it on the ground of retaliation.

But what was the state of the case as regards the election of President Hayes? There was a dispute as to the electoral vote of certain states. Both sides made charges of fraud. And certainly no [illegible] was alleged against the republicans in Louisiana or Florida which exceeded the fraud perpetrated by Grover in Oregon. After weeks of fruitless dispute in congress the scheme of an electoral commission was hit upon. This was a democratic scheme. A majority of the republicans opposed it insisting that the vice president had the right to count the vote. But matters were drifting towards a very grave crisis and a part of the republicans in order to have a settlement and avert a great national danger joined in the democratic scheme of creating an electoral commission. Of course the democrats supposed they had the composition of the commission fully provided for so that they would have one majority. But Justice Davis unexpectedly was elected senator. The next justice of the supreme court took the seat which Davis was expected to occupy on the commission, and the authors of the plan lost the advantage they had prepared with so much skill and cunning.

Public opinion acquiesced in the final decision of the election thus obtained through an act of the national congress, and it would have acquiesced as readily had the decision been the other way. It was a decision made by the lawful representatives of both the political parties to the contest. That such decision by the nation's great political assembly was lawful, binding and conclusive, and gave to the candidate in whose favor it was made as good and valid a title to the presidency as any president ever had, could not be questioned, and the country manifested no desire to question it, though some reckless partisans in the next congress did. Thus Hayes was declared president by methods expressly provided by law. But this proceeding in Maine is not only not in accord with the law of the state, but in its inception and whole course has been in gross violation and defiance of law and right. The illegality and infamy of the course which has been pursued have been denounced by the unanimous voice of the supreme court of the state, to which tribunal the governor referred the questions at issue, though he refused to be bound by the decision.

A year ago the majority in congress were preparing their party for defeat. The succeeding elections subjugated the brigadiers, who have since been extremely tame. But now the reckless partisans who have got up this scheme in Maine to render elections a farce are as vigorously applying their knives to the vitals of their party as the brigadiers did in congress last year.

Blood will tell. This axiomatic and laconic saying is again forced to the mind by a brief dispatch from Jackson, Miss., to the effect that Barksdale, not Jim Barksdale of Yazoo fame, but an uncle of that promising, pugnacious and murderous politician, is ahead in the senatorial race. A mere mention of the chivalrous name should be sufficient to warn other aspirants to stand back. The dispatch says that Barksdale was the favorite in the democratic caucus for the nomination of U. S. senator to succeed Hon. B. K. Bruce in the senate for the six years from the 4th of March, 1881. Mr. Barksdale represented one of the Mississippi districts in the lower branch of congress in anti-war days, and that of itself is enough guarantee of his "brigadierism." Barksdale placed himself and his style on record on the occasion when Owen Lovejoy, an advocate of universal freedom, was addressing the house and inadvertently in his excitement advanced towards the democratic side, when (the typical southern gentleman and blackguard said to Mr. Lovejoy, "You shall not come on this side of the house." The speaker requested the gentleman to respect the authority of the house. Mr. Barksdale, in his suave and characteristic manner replied, 'Order that black-hearted scoundrel and nigger-stealing thief to take his seat, and this side of the house will do it." There can be no question that Mr Barksdale will be a tower of strength and gravity to that august body—the United States senate.

The democracy of Maine have adopted a style which was attempted by the coparceners in Oregon in their attempted "electoral steal" of unhappy memory, by unseating Dunnell, who was elected by two majority, and substituting Stiles, who lacked that many of election. The odor of Grover and his ilk reaches from historic Oregon to Maine.

The information desired can be had by consulting the article "Thermometer" in any new general cyclopedia. It would be too long for our columns.

Thurman gets the vote of his party in the Ohio legislature, but can't be elected. What a fatal oversight that his party didn't hold the legislature of Ohio as it has held that of Maine.

ALARMING NEWS FROM INDIA.

Mohammed Jan Raising Troops for the Purpose of Offensive War against the British.

[SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

NEW YORK, Jan. 11—A London dispatch says there is a rumor about town to the effect that the government is in possession of startling and alarming news from India, which it is endeavoring to keep secret until a cabinet council can be held to consider it. Mohammed Jan is believed to have been reinforced by several thousands of Shere Ali's regulars, from whom cannon now mounted at Ghuznee were probably obtained. He has assumed political as well as military authority and is collecting revenues in the name of Mowa Khan whom he pretends to regard as the rightful and reigning ameer though temporarily kept out of his capital by forcible occupation by the British. He has sent emissaries to Turkistan commissioned to stir the people up to engage in immediate warfare upon the British as a common enemy and the probabilities are that on account of his high reputation as a soldier and commander in the wars of Turkistan he will have no inconsiderable success in raising men to join him on Ghuznee or to begin hostilities on the same basis. It is not believed that Gen. Roberts will hazard an advance on Ghuznee at least before spring. The difficult nature of the road between the capital and the fortress will of itself preclude this [illegible] the winter rendering advance almost or quite as [illegible] from Cabul as from Candahar from which point the contemplated expedition is for the present abandoned although the distance is only about half as great. Rumors that Abdul [illegible] is raising a force in Kohistan for Mohammed [illegible] is a well authenticated fact. [illegible] is understood to be the most important [illegible] of the [illegible] that it is the strongest for resisting the [illegible] to be a [illegible] of the existing [illegible] British Afghanistan.

A resolution directing the committee on expenditures in the state department to investigate facts relative to the consulate at Hongkong was adopted.

After routine business consideration was resumed of the resolution for printing Glover's report. Question was recommitted to committee on printing with instructions to inquire how the house lost possession of the report and who now has possession of it.

Wilson, from committee on printing reported a bill with regard to the election of congressional printer. Referred to the committee of the whole on a point of order.

Bill introduced by Representative McCord to-day and referred to committee on commerce entitled a bill to establish board of commissioners of inter state commerce provides for appointment of three commissioners.

The bill for free importation of classical antiquities passed.

Crittenden (by request)—For a national jail and prison.

Dibley, of Ill—Declaring all public roads postal roads.

Calkin—A bill for the relief of Lucy Meeker.

Gunter—To equalise homesteads also to graduate and reduce the price of public lands to actual settlers.

Slimmons—Repealing the law imposing a special tax on domestic wines.

Willetts—Extending the jurisdiction of United States circuit and district courts over crimes committed by Indians.

Upson—To prohibit and punish the subletting or transfer of mail lettings.

Belford—To create a mineral bureau at the seat of government.

Harmer moved to suspend the rules and to adopt a resolution for the appointment of a committee of seven to inquire into the method and manner of paying pensions arrears of pensions bounty and back pay to soldiers and ascertain whether any irregularities exist in the payment of the same, to investigate any subject of complaint which may be lodged with them as to the payment, rejection or suspension of any pension, bounty or back pay with a view to the enactment of such legislation as may correct existing defects and protect the pensioner in his rights. The Garfield resolution will be allowed to lie over for a week as he was not sure that in its present shape it would not seriously embarrass the pension office in the present payment of pensions. The resolution was adopted, yeas 183, nays 66.

Hatch moved to suspend the rules and pass the bill providing for the importation of salt free from duty.

The motion to suspend the rules and pass the bill was lost: yeas 115 nays 115, not the necessary two-thirds in the affirmative. The result was received with laughter and applause.

Morton presented a memorial of the Union Pacific and other roads asking for a reduction of duty upon steel rails from $.8 to $10 per ton. Referred to the ways and means committee.

Cox presented a petition from manufacturers and merchants of New York city representing $200,000,000 active capital, for the enactment of a law to give effect to treaty obligations as to trade marks.

THE STAR POSTAL SERVICE.

Assistant Postmaster General Brady Gives a House Committee Some Information on Postal Matters.

[SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

WASHINGTON, Jan 12.—Gen Brady second assistant postmaster general appeared before the special committee of the house committee on appropriations, this morning and submitted a reply to the letter of the committee, asking for information and giving tabulated statements and full details of the growth of the star service, the expense and increase of the service and the consequent increase of expense. General Brady was questioned at length upon the general operation of the department, and laws affecting and regulating the same. He stated that the increased cost of the star service in the past year was $1,700,000, of this $432,000 being upon 1300 new routes established by the department in pursuance of the law authorizing and directing the same, and the remaining $1,268,500 for increased speed and service upon routes already established. Gen Brady asserted that there was no deficiency in the appropriation for the star service which actually existed nor would any be created. The facts were that such additional service had been put on during the fiscal year that if this must be continued upon its present basis, the appropriation made for that branch of the service would be insufficient. It was the desire of the department to be guided in its action by the view which should be taken by congress. This increase had been made by the department because it had seemed to be imperatively demanded by the demands of the service and in response to the urgent demands of the people and representatives of the sections where made. The cost of star service was less now in proportion to the amount of such service than at any other period since 1[illegible]. The belief was indulged that congress will take the same view of the matter as that which had influenced the department in its action. The course pursued has not only been in conformity to the letter of the law but also with the spirit of enactments on the subject. If it were not deemed wise in the part of congress to increase the appropriations asked for the department would of necessity curtail mail facilities so as to bring the same within the cost of the [illegible] proportion. To necessitate this course would work injury and great injustice. Should congress take the same view of the matter as the department and make all necessary provisions the same liberal policy would be continued in future. Gen. Brady was asked why the government did not advertise for open competition in cases where extra service was required upon any of the star routes and if it was not manifestly inequitable to charge the government double compensation for two trips a week where one had previously been made, when the cost to the contractors could not possibly be doubled. In reply was that the [illegible] was [illegible] accept [illegible] contracts for a term of years [illegible] refuse to accept [illegible] vice unless [illegible] The government [illegible] was [illegible]

THE GREENBACK CONFERENCE

Incoherent Bosh in the Call for a Convention—Kearney Prominently Exhibits His Ignorance and His Vicious Character

SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN

WASHINGTON, Jan 1[illegible]—The call [illegible] been back after [illegible] a [illegible] announces bank [illegible] stock jobbers and grab [illegible] to harm whom it [illegible] possession [illegible] control of the government and filled the land with pauperism crime and misery and who have assailed the very foundations of popular government. It demands that the people in the district of Columbia are [illegible] that they will [illegible] [illegible] judgment [illegible]

[illegible] We then [illegible] 2[illegible] June [illegible] [illegible] delegates and [illegible] alternates at large and two delegates [illegible] from each [illegible] two delegates [illegible] chairman of the conference [illegible] congressional committee and [illegible] Dewees chairman of the national committee.

This report was adopted without debate by a unanimous rising vote.

A resolution was then read and [illegible] Hendrick B. Wright's homestead [illegible] bill and Gen. Weaver's bill for the equalization of soldiers pay and bounties but immediately afterwards upon Weaver himself put in an appearance and said that this was not the time nor place to pass such a resolution and that he hoped the conference would reconsider its action and allow the resolution to be withdrawn. A motion to reconsider was adopted and the resolution was withdrawn.

Adjourned sine die.

Kearney again Breaks Loose—Treasonable Sentiments and Vile Language

The call for a national convention was then read by Rev DeLaMatyr who appeared throughout the convention in ministerial garb. A delegate then moved to condemn the national authorities for alleged delinquencies.

Let us all vote for this cried Kearney. The crawling creeping serpents will come to us by and by for relief.

The motion was adopted.

After the meeting adjourned Kearney made another speech beginning by announcing his readiness to lead a gang of men to Maine to oppose any troops which might be sent there. In the course of his tirade he advocated lynch law freely used his threadbare adjectives and denounced John Sherman as a thief who would steal coppers from a dead man's eyes and then kick the corpse because they were not silver. Fill my belly with potatoes said he and I am a man. Give me a dollar based on a potato or a cabbage that will sustain life and not a bit of gold only fit to stick in a woman's ears and a man's tooth. At the close he dealt with the Chinese question and the provisions in relation to them the new constitution of California. If the United States meddle with that constitution he cried we will lop off California and form a solid west and with a solid south we will whip the devil out of New England.

FRIDAY MORNING, JAN 16, 1880.

CITY.

AN UNNECESSARY SCARE.—Yesterday afternoon a false report was extensively circulated and generally believed that telegraphic advices from Roseburg and a sudden extraordinary fall of the barometer indicated another disastrous storm. Mr. Herman of the signal service office was, in some instances, given as authority for the statement and this gave it a coloring of truth. The owners of unfinished buildings and those being reroofed began to take steps to secure them. Down town merchants and professional men sent messengers to their homes with instructions to their families to leave residences and come to safer places in the business portion of the city. It is said that a telegram was sent to Salem advising the officers, if possible, to secure the state house from further damage. During the afternoon not less than a hundred persons called at the signal office, and every visitor was agreeably disappointed with the information from Mr. Herman that the barometer had been rising since morning, that the reports were untrue in every particular, and that he had not made, nor had he authorized such a statement. It is not definitely known who started the inconsiderate rumor, but it has been traced to the foreman of a lot of tinners, who, in order to hurry them with their labor, informed the workmen that Sergeant Herman had predicted another storm before night. The report, although probably not started with malice, succeeded in causing much mental suffering in the community which has been so severely visited.

SENTENCE COMMUTED.—Gov. Thayer has just commuted the following sentences of convicts: Lawrence Eisler, convicted of larceny in Umatilla county, and on the 13th of November, 1878, sentenced to 18 months' imprisonment in the penitentiary, on account of faithful services, grubbing ditching and burning coal and waiving right to merit money. Jacob Ingram, convicted of larceny in dwelling in Multnomah county, and sentenced February 14, 1879, to one years' imprisonment, on account of uniform good conduct, faithful and extra services as cook, and waiving merit money. Wm. Marshall, convicted of larceny in Marion county and sentenced October 19, 1877, to three year's imprisonment. Reasons, on account of uniform good conduct and waiving merit money.

LOST A HAND.—About three weeks ago, Lee, a Chinaman who keeps a wash house at 68 Taylor street, near Fourth, chided his younger brother, about 15 years old, for having overslept himself. The boy became angered and cut his hand with a knife. A Chinese physician was called, and he attempted an entirely novel cure by tying a string tightly above the wrist. Gangrene, of course, set in, and a few days since the hand was amputated by Dr. Harvey. The stump has since commenced to mortify, and the arm will have to be amputated near the shoulder, if the sufferer don't die before he can recover strength to bear the operation.

ARTICLES FILED.—Articles were filed yesterday in the office of the secretary of state incorporating the Stayton Water Ditch and Canal Co. Purpose, the construction, operation and maintenance of a canal and water ditch from a point in the Santiam river, about three quarters of a mile east of Stayton, in Marion county, to Stayton, for floating rafts, logs, etc., navigation of boats and supplying ... manufactories, etc., with water for propelling machinery, and also for irrigating ... Incorporators, W. H. Hobson, J. ..., R. R. McKinney, Thomas Sims and S. A. Johns. Capital stock, $4000; principal place Stayton.

CASE OF WONG FOOK.—Next Tuesday (January 20th) is the day set for the execution of Wong Fook, the murderer of Hui Qui. We learn that a petition, asking Governor Thayer to grant a respite, is being circulated. No motion for a new trial nor notice of appeal has been made, and unless a respite is granted Wong Fook will have to expiate his crime on the gallows. The death warrant was signed yesterday by Judge Bellinger and delivered to Sheriff Norden, who, unless the respite is granted, will carry the sentence of the court into execution.

FIRE IN EAST PORTLAND.—The residence of Prof. C. Parrish, the well known musician, located in Stephens' Addition, East Portland, took fire about 7 o'clock last night from an exploding kerosene lamp, and burned to the ground. Only a small portion of the furniture was saved. The loss will be between $2000 and 2500, and it is understood that there is no insurance on the dwelling, or the furniture.

DAMAGE TO TIMBER.—Mr. Shields, a farmer residing on the Columbia slough, came to town yesterday and reports the road all the way between East Portland and the slough, and for a Gravelly Hill covered with fallen timber and nearly every tree prostrate. Fears of considerable loss to fences and farm houses are entertained, should these trees take fire during the coming summer and autumn.

GRADUATES.—This year the graduating class of the Willamette University numbers ten. The following are the names of the applicants for graduating honors: Nora Chamberlain, Lucy Spaulding, Minnie Cunningham, ... McKinney, Gable Clark, T. B. Cornell, ... Bishop, Robert Harrison and Frank R. ...

ONE OF OUR GRADUATES.—The upholsterers in the employ of the Oregon Furniture Co. presented Wm. B. Jackson with a handsome ... made of black walnut, with a silver plate on the top inscribed, "Presented to Wm. B. Jackson, by his shopmates, on the occasion of his 21st birthday."

APPOINTED.—Gov. Thayer yesterday appointed David G. Gordon, No. 2 Central Row Hartford, Conn., commissioner for Oregon, to reside in the state of Connecticut. E. W. ... of Portland, has been appointed notary public for the ensuing two years.

STATED MEETING.—There will be a stated meeting of Portland Lodge No. 55 A. F. & A. M. at their lodge room, Masonic Temple, this (Friday) evening at 7½ o'clock.

DANGEROUS.—H. J. Lynch, who was struck on the head with some blunt instrument by Thomas Watts, a few days ago, is still lying in a critical condition. Watts is out on bail.

THE SWANGER MURDER.

Henry Wintzingerode of this City Arrested, Charged with having Murdered the old Man.

Wednesday evening Henry Wintzingerode, a young man who was a resident of this city, and well known here, was arrested at the residence of C. Dietz in Washington county, charged with the murder of Jacob Swanger, the full particulars of which were published in yesterday's OREGONIAN. Wintzingerode had been working on the farm of Mr. Dietz, and first suspicions were aroused against him when a daughter of Mr. Dietz saw Henry stealthily counting some twenty dollar gold pieces, and quite a quantity of silver. Search was instituted and two guns and a pair of boots which were identified as the property of Swanger were then found. Wintzingerode has been lodged in the jail at Hillsboro. He has made no statement concerning the crime. Persons in this city who know him well, say that for the past ten years he has not been in the full possession of his reasoning faculties.

Hon. J. F. Caples is in receipt of a letter from Hillsboro stating that there is no doubt that Wintzingerode committed the crime. Mr. Caples will leave this morning for the scene of the murder, and make a full investigation.

LIEUT. EDWIN H. SHELTON.

Particulars of his Death in a Stage of the C. & O Company.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE OREGONIAN.]

CANYONVILLE, Or., Jan. 13.

The California & Oregon Stage Company's stage from the south this morning brought to this place the remains of Lieut. Edwin H. Shelton, U. S. A., who died about 8 A. M. today in the canyon nine miles south of this place. He was en route to Walla Walla, where his wife is lying very sick. He was riding on the outside of the coach with the driver, and said he was cold and would like to get inside. The driver stopped and Mr. Shelton climbed inside. He died shortly after. Dr. J. A. Callender, of Roseburg, and two ladies from Jacksonville were in the stage. Everything was done for him that could be done under the circumstances. He had some kind of a chill, which carried him away. Preparations are being made to bury him here to-morrow unless further orders are received by wire. The deceased had $103 37 in coin and a watch and ring on his person.

SLANDERING THE UNFORTUNATE.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

An evening paper which, with ghoulish delight, dwells in a column on the downfall of Capt. Miller, of Oregon City, and makes the averment that he failed to pay his employes, the excuse for a homily that has but little point in any view, starts out on a wrong premise, and consequently the article, if it had any moral to suggest, is defective, inasmuch as Capt. Miller secured payment to his employes. By publishing this, you will but do justice to an unfortunate man whose impulses are as honorable as any one's, and so in part, extract the malicious venom of the insect. ONE WHO KNOWS.

THE LA CENTER HORROR.

Full Details of the Fatal Disaster of the 9th Inst.—List of the Killed and Wounded.

Mr. W. H. Peter of La Center, writes the following full account of the recent disaster at the school house in that neighborhood.

Twenty-four persons, including the teacher, Mrs A. E. Roper, two visitors and twenty-one scholars, were in the ill-fated house. The school house had lately been built, 20 by 24 feet, and after consultation it was thought that there was but one tree that could possibly reach the house, but on last Friday at 12 o'clock, while Mrs. Roper, with her happy little band of pupils were consuming the frugal meal comfortably around a warm stove in the center of the house, that one identical tree came down across the house with a crash, tearing, mashing and breaking the house and stove into a million fragments, killing two children, badly wounding three, besides injuring the remainder present. The tree came with such force that all in the house were knocked senseless. Frank Briggs was the first to recover from unconsciousness—and aroused the teacher and larger boys. Mr. Lewton was soon there, and with his assistance the large boys carried water to quench the fire that had caught from the stove, and thus saved the children from burning to death until assistance could be had.

Mr. John W. Bartlett had eight children at school, two of whom were killed. Three are thought to be mortally wounded, two slightly and one unhurt. Alice, his eldest daughter, 18 years old, received quite an injury on the face and shoulders. Ruth, aged 14 years, is reported as having her skull injured, her shoulder blade broken, her lower limbs badly bruised and burned—the tree falling across her thighs, and being burned by the fire before extinguished. She is considered convalescent. The tree was sawed twice before Ruth could be extricated. Emma, aged 12, escaped with but slight injury. Elmer, aged 13,

WAS HORRIBLY MUTILATED,

Having 25 square inches of scalp taken off the top of his head, his face terribly scratched and otherwise dangerously hurt—inwardly. Elmer, after receiving these wounds, walked half a mile home. His own father replaced the scalp and sewed it to its proper place, and he is doing well and will likely recover. Olive, aged 9 years, was supposed to have been instantly killed, as she was directly under the tree and rubbish, and was never heard to speak after the crash. Milton, aged 8 years, received a severe cut over the left eye and ear, and had his left side, leg and arm burnt to a blister. Alex, 7 years old, was taken out from under the tree and debris dead, after all the rest were safe from the flames. The father of the child sent to the house to ascertain where his son was, and finding no Alex at the house where he was supposed to have gone, gave another search in the fatal wreck for his lost child, and he was found as above stated. He was heard to cry some time during the excitement, which led us to believe he was

NOT KILLED INSTANTLY.

Clara, aged 5, received but few scratches, and is considered not hurt.

Mr. M. Anderson had four children at school, all of whom were hurt but none badly. W. A. Johnson also, had five children in the ill-fated school house, but they seem not to be dangerously hurt. J. L. Gaither's two children were but slightly hurt—his little daughter Clara had her face scarred and one tooth knocked out. S. H. Dyer's son, aged 14, was the only child not scratched or hurt in the house. Mr. Charles Anderson and Otis Harrald stepped in only a few moments before the accident, and they were both severely hurt, and the writer is informed that Harrald is dangerously so. Mrs. Roper, after thoroughly shaking herself, finds that she has only a sprained wrist. Dr. R. S. Davis was first called to the scene, but fearing that the case was in need of more help, Mr. James Anderson was immediately dispatched to Vancouver for Dr. Smith, who arrived here at 8 P. M. Dr. Smith says everything is working well, and the chances are that Ruth, Elmer and Milton will recover.

Olive and Alexander were buried in separate coffins, but in one grave, Sunday the 11th, at 11 o'clock A. M.

A Reminiscence of Gen. Grant.

When Gen. Grant was in Portland last fall, he met an old friend whom he knew in 1854. Together they talked of old times, and the General asked his friend how he was getting on. "I'm doing first rate now," he said, "but for years I suffered so with pain in my back and kidneys, that life was a burden; but a single package of the OREGON KIDNEY TEA cured me up, sound and well, and I'm good for another twenty years." Sold everywhere.

THE DEATH-RATE OF

Our country is getting to be fearfully alarming, the average of life being lessened every year, without any reasonable cause, death resulting generally from the most insignificant origin. At this season of the year especially a cold is such a common thing that in the hurry of every day life we are apt to overlook the dangers attending it, and often find too late that a Fever or Lung trouble has set in. Thousands lose their lives in this way every winter, while had Boschee's German Syrup been taken a cure would have resulted and a large bill from a doctor been avoided. For all diseases of the Throat and Lungs Boschee's German Syrup has proven itself to be the greatest discovery of its kind in medicine. Every Druggist in this country will tell you of its wonderful effect. Over 950,000 bottles sold last year, without a single failure known.

Silk Mixed Striped Armures 25c per yard, reduced from 50c, at J. F. D. Wrinkle & Co.'s.

Sole Agency for the Celebrated Kerbs and Speis New York Cigars.

If a Man wants a Bottle of Whisky let him buy it and take it home like a man and not sneak home with a bottle of "Bitters" or "Cordial," and pretend that it is medicine. If he wants a tonic that is something better than a temporary stimulant, he should get a bottle of Peruvian Syrup (an iron tonic) that will vitalize the blood and give durable strength to the system.

White's Prairie Flower.

Taken before retiring, will insure a good night's rest, with an awakening in the morning to health, courage and vigor. For coated tongue, bad breath, sick headache, or any distressing arising from dyspepsia or torpid liver, it is without a peer. Its action on disease is entirely different from any medicine ever introduced, quieting pains almost instantly. The hue and cry raised against it by patent medicine men, who have foreseen in it a ... the destruction of their nefarious business, and the thousands of unsolicited testimonials flowing in from all parts of the New World is a sure indication of its great merits. Trial Size at all Drug Stores. Half pound bottles 75 cents.

REPUBLICANS INDIGNANT.

Gov. Hoyt Appoints a Democratic Friend to the Judiciary, and the Members of his Party Make a Row about it.

SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN.

NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—A Times' dispatch from Wilkesbarre says that great indignation prevails here to-night because Governor Hoyt this afternoon appointed Stanley Woodward who is a democrat, judge of the 11th judicial district, in preference to ex-senator Payne, a staunch, honorable and competent republican, who was also an applicant for the position, made vacant by Judge Harding's resignation. At Kingston, the late home of Governor Hoyt, the feeling is intense, and the Hoyt Club marched to its headquarters and tore down a large transparency that adorned the front of the building because it bore the governor's name and trampled it in the mud, with cries of derision and disgust. When one of the officers of the club was requested to desist, he replied that they no longer recognized Hoyt as a republican governor, and they are anxious that he should know it, since he spurned their petitions for democrats. The Hoyt Club of Kingston is the first that was organized in this state for the gubernatorial campaign, and is composed of wealthy and prominent republicans. The only reason assigned for the governor's appointment of Col. Woodward to the judiciary, is the fact that they have been friends from boyhood, although opposed in politics. When Hoyt was nominated for governor, Woodward was the first to espouse his cause for which he suffered ostracism at the hands of his party. The incensed republicans will hold a formal meeting to-morrow to denounce the governor's action in ignoring his party's claims for personal friends.

An Alarming Scene in a London Church.

LONDON, Jan. 11.—The most intense excitement was occasioned to-day by a sensational scene in the Holton garden Italian church. While a priest was celebrating mass a man in the audience fired a pistol at him. The church was crowded, and the noise caused a semi-panic. The altar was struck by the bullet, and subsequently flames started from a side altar and the church was damaged to the extent of £1000. The man was arrested after a hard fight by the police, and when taken into custody had a long stiletto in his hand, with which he attempted to stab those who seized him.

Strike Imminent.

LONDON, Jan. 14.—An extensive strike of cotton operatives at Bolton, Burney and Ashton-under-Tyne is imminent in consequence of masters' refusal to increase of 10 per cent of wages.

SUICIDE.

A distinguished Scientist once said: "No man with a strong, healthy stomach ever committed suicide, yet many suffer the torments of the damned with dyspepsia, when a single bottle of DR. MINTIE'S ENGLISH DANDELION LIVER AND DYSPEPSIA PILLS will give relief, and, if persisted in, cure the worse case of this distressing trouble. This pill cures torpid liver, biliousness, sallow complexion, foul breath, sick headache, heartburn, pain in side and back, removes pimples from the face, regulates the bowels, is sugar-coated and guaranteed purely vegetable. It acts directly on the coating of the stomach and on the liver; is suited to any climate, wet or dry weather. Beware of imitations; genuine has cut of lion for outside wrapper. Price, 50 cents. Sold by all druggists. Hodge, Davis & Co., Portland, wholesale agents.

How to Save Money.

Instead of going to a doctor, if you have Bright's Disease, Diabetes, pain in back and loins, smarting, inflammation, calculi, brickdust deposit, or any trouble of the kidneys or bladder, buy a bottle of DR. MINTIE'S NEPHRETICUM, the great Buchu Compound. It is the best prescription ever compounded for these troubles. Abrams & Carroll, Wholesale Druggists, say: "We regard Nephreticum as the best Kidney and Bladder Remedy in the market." Woodward, druggist, Portland, Oregon, says: "Everybody speaks highly of it." Childs, druggist, Portland, says: "Sold lots of it; it always does the work." Many have been cured of obstinate kidney complaints after the doctors gave them up. Sold by all druggists. Price $1 00. 45 Years Before the Public.
THE GENUINE
CELEBRATED
FOR THE CURE OF
Hepatitis, or Liver Complaint,
DYSPEPSIA AND SICK HEADACHE.

Symptoms of a Diseased Liver.

PAIN in the right side, under the edge of the ribs, increases on pressure; sometimes the pain is in the left side; the patient is rarely able to lie on the left side; sometimes the pain is felt under the shoulder blade, and it frequently extends to the top of the shoulder, and is sometimes mistaken for rheumatism in the arm. The stomach is affected with loss of appetite and sickness; the bowels in general are costive, sometimes alternative with lax; the head is troubled with pain, accompanied with a dull, heavy sensation in the back part. There is generally a considerable loss of memory, accompanied with a painful sensation of having left undone something which ought to have been done. A slight, dry cough is sometimes an attendant. The patient complains of weariness and debility; he is easily startled, his feet are cold or burning, and he complains of a prickly sensation of the skin; his spirits are low; and although he is satisfied that exercise would be beneficial to him, yet he can scarcely summon up fortitude enough to try it. In fact, he distrusts every remedy. Several of the above symptoms attend the disease, but cases have occurred where few of them existed, yet examination of the body, after death, has shown the LIVER to have been extensively deranged.

AGUE AND FEVER.

DR. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, IN CASES OF AGUE AND FEVER, when taken with Quinine, are productive of the most happy results. No better cathartic can be used, preparatory to, or after taking Quinine. We would advise all who are afflicted with this disease to give them a FAIR TRIAL.

For all bilious derangements, and as a simple purgative, they are unequaled.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.

The genuine are never sugar coated.

Every box has a red wax seal on the lid, with the impression DR. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS.

The genuine McLANE'S LIVER PILLS bear the signatures of C. McLANE and FLEMING BROS. on the wrappers.

Insist upon having the genuine DR. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, prepared by Fleming Bros., of Pittsburgh, Pa., the market being full of imitations of the name McLane, spelled differently but same pronunciation.

FRIDAY MORNING, JAN. 16, 1880.

Leaf from Russian History.

The recent attempt upon the life of the Czar of Russia will not probably call down on its authors, even if captured, such terrible punishment as was meted out to a band of conspirators who, in 1697, made an effort to assassinate the great autocrat, Peter I. Like some of his successors, Peter had ideas of progress far beyond the mental conception of his subjects, and his praiseworthy efforts for the improvement of his country found their greatest obstacles among those he was most anxious to serve.

In the year above mentioned Peter had declared his intention of visiting foreign lands for the purpose of gathering knowledge which would benefit his people. The opposition to this scheme was widespread, and the attempt to prevent it was made by two leaders of the Strelitz, a body of militia created about the year 1547, by Ivan IV, and who had mutinied a number of times, named Sukanim and Tsikler. These men plotted with their co-workers to set fire to the city of Moscow, knowing that such an event would call Peter at once into the midst of the people. Previous to the hour selected for the performance of their scheme, the whole party assembled at a banquet and endeavored to work their courage to the desperate point by drink. Two of their number, however, grew timid, and, slipping away from their party, hurried to the Czar with an account of the plot against his life. With a full knowledge of the scheme, Peter lost no time in checking the seditious movement, by ordering his faithful guards to surround the rendezvous of the conspirators. With his usual impetuosity he ventured among them alone, some time in advance of his troops, whom he supposed had already captured the entire party.

His appearance caused the utmost consternation among them, while he, although furious over the supposed delay of his soldiers, concealed his emotions, and, advancing among them, gave an excuse for his sudden appearance, seated himself, and proceeded to share in their revelry. After a time one whispered to Sukanim, "Brother, is it time?" Sukanim hesitated, then responded, "Not yet." Peter, hearing these words, and at the same time the footsteps of his soldiers, sprang from his seat, knocked him down with a terrible blow from his powerful fist, exclaimed, choking with rage, "If it is not yet time for you, scoundrel, it is for me!" This prompt action and the entrance of the troops threw the gang into confusion, and amidst their cries for mercy they were chained and dragged away for punishment.

All the semi-barbarous devices then in existence were brought into play to render the execution of these conspirators terrible.

They were tortured on the rack, their legs and arms severed, and death finally put an end to their sufferings. Then their heads were cut off and mounted on a column surrounded with a grotesque and horrible arrangement of bodies, legs and arms, for the delectation of the half-savage populace. Can the present Czar repeat this performance?

Peter made his tour, and was absent until September, 1698, when he appeared suddenly in Moscow, at a time when his subjects supposed him in Germany. His rapid and secret movements were caused by tidings of a revolt among the Strelitz, who had left their military stations and marched towards Moscow. They had met General Gordon before Peter's arrival, and that officer partaking somewhat of the savage nature of his chief, slew many thousands of them in battle, captured the remaining seven thousand, decimated them and held the fragments for the delectation of his Imperial Majesty, the Czar of all the Russias.

Now the brute reigned supreme over the human in Peter and he reveled in blood. Six weeks were wasted in torturing them before the butchery commenced. As a fringe to the ghastly picture 2000 were hanged, while the remainder, kneeling in rows of fifty, were beheaded, Peter leading in the butchery with his own sword, and compelling all the noblemen of his court to assist in the bloody work.

For five long winter months the walls of Moscow were decorated with frozen corpses, while many bodies were left lying where they fell. To commemorate the event, a large medal was struck, bearing on one side the profile of Peter, and surrounded by the legend, "Petrus Alexii-Filius, D. G. Tzar, et Magnus Dux Totius Russiae," "Peter, the son of Alexis, by the grace of God, Czar and Grand Duke of all the Russias." Upon the reverse, Peter is represented as Hercules, clad in the lion's skin, with his club in his left hand, its upper portion resting upon his left shoulder, while his right hand applies the torch, rearing the severed heads of the hydra. The inscription reads, "Salva Publica Firmata, Perduellibus Deletis, 1698."

Even these severe measures did not check the spirit of revolution, which appeared again in 1699, and was only smothered by continued arrests and wholesale beheadings.

French Spectacles.

"What queer ideas you Americans have over there!" said a Frenchwoman to me, as we stood one day waiting for our glasses to be filled at one of the springs of Vichy. "Such a droll people! But it is really true that you make grow the potato (sweet potato) by wetting a a common potato vine with molasses and water?" "Heigh! those miserable, radical Americans," said an Imperialist once in my hearing. "They plant their dead fathers and mothers in their vegetable gardens that thus their beans and asparagus may have more nourishing properties." "Your American mothers permit their daughters to go away on traveling excursions of a week at a time with their fiancés. Of course it is true, for I read it in the Figaro." "What would men do if American ladies did not provide spittoons in their drawing room? Do you believe they would really spit upon the floor?" said another. "The only American woman I ever saw had a great beard," said a stout paysanne to me among the mountains of Auvergne. "I saw her in a show the year I went to Lyons. I thought all American women were like that. But I am sure you are quite as pretty as a Frenchwoman," she added patronizingly. It was in that same village, forty miles from a railway, and in so secluded a mountain nook that it was the site of a Tappist monastery, that I was followed by every inhabitant of the village, as I walked with my French companion through the main street. "Look at the American," they cried to each other: "she's painted to look like a Frenchwoman!" I had not an atom of powder on my face, and had traveled fourteen miles since morning in an opened carriage under an August sun. That I was as red as a dahlia was only proof that my natural coffee color lay deep under layers of cosmetic. For did not all these Auvergnians know well that all Americans are negroes? THE CHICAGO WHEAT CORNER.

CHICAGO, Jan. 11.—The same unusual condition of prices remains the feature on the board of trade and the enormous aggregate of grain in elevator in Chicago and points outside the city and along its tributary railroads is growing larger daily until at present there is hardly room in any elevator for the diminishing receipts that mark the latter part of this week. The total of receipts exceeds the total shipments of grain by nearly a million and a quarter of bushels during the week. The New York clique have been from day to day taking the market. This was more marked on Wednesday when after wheat had declined nearly three cents Baker & Co., the agents of the Keene ring, hopped in, and loading up with a few hundred thousand bushels of February wheat, so astonished and scared the short interest that the next day the market more than recovered, and talk of $1 to per bushel was louder than ever.

One thing is certain, there must be a continued rise or American break before long outside the moneyed clique who controlled the market. Not everybody in the trade seems to regard a break as certain. It is claimed that Hatch, Dows and the other manipulators regard the situation with indifference. They know that if a break occurs there will be a tremendous rush to ship the grain and they will make on the advance to transfer stocks in which they are largely concerned, more than they will lose on the decline in grain. If on the contrary they find themselves able to keep prices aloft, they will eventually force the European markets and the railroad stocks up. The farmer is the individual who suffers the greatest injury from this state of the market. He sees the high prices quoted, and yet, when he offers his wares for sale, is met with the discouraging answer that the elevators are full and that there is no place to store his grain even if he delivers it. So, with the Eden of high prices at his door, he is unable to place himself within its pale because of insufficient storage capacity of his commission merchant's elevators. Provisions were buffeted to and fro with generally firmer prices and better feeling, but no market.

Exchange sales of February were, wheat, $1 28¼, [illegible] corn, 35; oats, 34½@35¼; pork, $13 [illegible] $13 77½; lard, $7 52½@$7 82½. Closing February prices—wheat, $1 29⅛, corn, 40¼, oats, 35⅛, pork, $13[illegible]; lard, $7 72½@$7 75. Closing cash prices—wheat, $1 28½; corn, 40c; oats 35c; rye, 80c; barley, 81c, pork, $13 40; lard, $7.65. Receipts for the week—wheat, 579 000 bushels; corn, 1,211 000; oats, 214,000. Shipments—wheat, 112 000 bushels; corn, 452,000; oats, 251,000. Receipts same time last year—wheat, 565,000 bushels; corn, 494,000; oats, 157 000. Shipments—wheat, 214,000 bushels; corn, 297,000; oats, 137,000.

EXCITEMENT IN THE NEW YORK WHEAT MARKET.

Scarcity of Wheat Storage—All Warehouses at the Seaboard Taken by Speculators—The Chicago Corner Recuperated—What Rufus Hatch Says.

[SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

NEW YORK, Jan. 12.—Excitement is very great at the produce exchange over a corner in grain. Crowds of persons interested in cereals are eagerly discussing ways and means to defeat the action of Keene's syndicate. The method most approved is to combine the different railroad companies having connections west of Chicago in a reduction of rates for grain, to enable farmers and others to sell grain directly to the eastern markets. The syndicate has filled elevators, stores and canal boats to overflowing, and in addition to these are paying storage on 6,000,000 bushels of wheat at one half per cent. per week. They have altogether nearly 10,000,000 bushels of grain here and in Chicago, and 1,000,000 bushels more on railroads.

The Star of to-day says: Private letters were received yesterday by leading grain merchants in this city which state that farmers cannot make sales, though anxious to do so, because of no place to store their product, and that a gang of speculators have gained control of the market for the purpose of speculation. It is claimed that the same scarcity of storage quarters exists at all seaboard cities, and that this glut has been created at when centers to bolster up the market by exhausting the demand and picking up the supply. The corner, which received a black eye a week ago by an unlooked for raid on the Chicago market, it is now stated has recuperated and is in full control of wheat speculators. The pool, it is said, is headed by Jim Keene, who is credited with having bought up the entire product of both this year as well as last year, amounting to millions of bushels. It is known that he sent checks some time ago through to a Chicago bank for $3,000,000 to settle some of his enormous purchases, and that he ordered it to be stored for future orders. He is also credited with having sent Rufus Hatch to England to manipulate European markets, so as to secure a good price there, but as Hatch is in New York, that report is exploded.

The World publishes an interview with Hatch, who says the blockade is more in corn and oats than in wheat, and that the present situation does not differ from that of March last year, when Chicago warehouses held over 12,000,000 bushels of grain. To-day they hold over 14,000,000. Owners of grain there do not propose to pay 34 cents a bushel to get it to seaboard, preferring to wait for the opening of navigation. He charges the high rates upon Vanderbilt. He also says: "I am, perhaps, over-sanguine, but I believe in very much higher prices. Europe and the United Kingdom have very short crops, and of very poor quality. It is not one county of the country that is short, but all of them. It is universal. Wheat is not at present prices what may be termed high, and is only a few points above the average of the last twelve years. Prospects of the growing winter wheat crop are anything but flattering. There is an increase of acreage in winter wheat districts, but in many localities wheat sprouted out, and with the recent warm weather and rains these districts will not produce more than one bushel to the acre."

MARK LANE WHEAT REPORT.

English Wheat Buyers Attach Little Importance to American Speculation.

[SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

LONDON, Jan. 13.—The Mark Lane Express, reviewing the British grain trade for the past week, says: In consequence of comparatively favorable weather farmers have been actively engaged with arrears of sowing. Consequently threshing was somewhat neglected, and deliveries of wheat at the principal markets have diminished. The condition of the majority of offerings, however, was so bad that millers would scarcely look at samples. Sales have been few, and only dry lots maintained prices. The bulk of business in Mark Lane consisted of purchases by country millers of hard, dry foreign wheats as substitutes for or mixture with English. Business in Mark Lane has been depressed as in view of American large surplus buyers were content to satisfy immediate requirements, and in consequence of a weaker feeling on the part of holders they have been enabled to do so on rather easier terms. Buyers appear to attach little importance to the great speculative movement in America. Judging from the present apathetic state of the grain trade and the fact that stocks at the principal ports in the United Kingdom are considerably in excess of those at the same time last year, while quantity on passage exceeds 2,350,000 quarters, it is improbable that hopes of American speculation will be just at present realized. Stocks of maize in this country are unusually small. The price however has fallen 3 shillings per quarter in a fortnight, doubtless owing practically to the unbounded stock in America.

Oats are rather favored imports. Arrivals at ports of call were moderate, and trade was decidedly quiet.

Wheat declined a shilling to a shilling and six pence per quarter. Wheat for shipment was quiet, buyers still holding off, though some sellers are offering a shilling to a shilling and six pence decline. Sales of English wheat last week were 37,000 qrs at 48s 2d per qr., against 37,400 qrs at 39s. 7d. per qr. for corresponding week last year. Imports into the United Kingdom during the week ending January 3d were 1,282,791 cwts wheat and 320,458 cwts of flour.

FOLLIES OF YOUTH,

Such as SPERMATORRHEA, or SEMINAL WEAKNESS, or LOSS OF PERFECT VITALITY. Nearly two thirds of all the Chronic Diseases spring, either directly or indirectly, from some derangement of the sexual system, and yet this subject is neglected by the majority of the Medical Profession.

I know that persons who are unfortunate enough to be afflicted by any form of sexual disease have a delicacy in calling upon the proper physician in time, from a sense of modesty and sometimes from ignorance, and permit those diseases to exist until their constitutions become corrupted, their organization broken down and the hope of future happiness blighted, until death becomes a welcome messenger to carry them out of their miserable existence.

In the Whole History of Medicine

No preparation has ever performed such marvelous cures, or maintained so wide a reputation, as AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, which is recognized as the world's remedy for all diseases of the throat and lungs. Its long continued series of wonderful cures in all climates has made it universally known as a safe and reliable agent to employ. Against ordinary colds, which are the forerunners of more serious disorders, it acts speedily and surely, always relieving suffering and often saving life. The protection it affords, by its timely use in the throat and lung disorders of children, makes it an invaluable remedy to be kept always on hand in every home. No person can afford to be without it, and those who have once used it never will. From their knowledge of its composition and effects, Physicians use the CHERRY PECTORAL extensively in their practice, and Clergymen recommend it. It is absolutely certain in its remedial effects, and will always cure where cures are possible. For sale by all dealers. Hodge, Davis & Co., Portland, wholesale agents.

SPINNEY will guarantee to forfeit $500 for every case of Seminal Weakness or private disease of any kind or character which he undertakes and fails to cure.

MIDDLE AGED MEN.

There are many at the age of thirty to sixty who are troubled with too frequent evacuations of the bladder, often accompanied by a slight smarting or burning sensation and a weakening of the system in a manner the patient cannot account for. On examining the urinary deposits a ropy sediment will often be found, and sometimes small particles of albumen will appear, or the color will be of a thin milkish hue, again changing to a dark and torpid appearance. There are many men who die of this difficulty, ignorant of the cause, which is the second stage of seminal weakness. Dr. S. will guarantee a perfect cure in all such cases, and a healthy restoration of the genito-urinary organs.

Office Hours—10 to 4 and 6 to 8. Sundays from 10 to 11 A. M. Consultation free. Thorough examination and advice, $5. Call or address
